Language Teaching Materials

This course provides an introduction to all the essentials you need to know in order to select appropriate materials for your students. The course consists of four ninety-minute sessions.

- Session one covers the evaluation of published materials.
- Session two covers the adaptation of published materials.
- Session three covers the use of resource books and language games.
- Session four covers the use of authentic materials

Aims and objectives

This course aims to provide a sound knowledge of the issues involved in evaluating the suitability of coursebooks, and ways of adapting them to meet learner needs more effectively.

On completion of the course, participants should have a good knowledge of techniques for adapting published materials in line with student needs and interests and the use of additional resources and games to make lessons more engaging. You should also be able to select interesting and appropriate authentic materials as the basis for lessons.

Entry requirements & Assessment

This course is open to all and assumes no prior knowledge of the subject. There is no assessment. Certificates of participation are awarded to all participants.

Short Courses Series

Each course in the series is self-contained. There are inter-related themes, but no overlap in the content, so you can choose to attend any or all of them.
